

About Us

Irvine Home School provides guidance, support and enrichment for homeschooling families in the Irvine Unified School District. We utilize the same rigorous curriculum as other Irvine schools while enabling students to work in an alternative setting. The program provides the support of credentialed IUSD teachers and students have the benefit of a classroom setting once a week.

Nondiscrimination Statement

The Irvine Unified School District is committed to equal opportunity for all individuals in education. District programs and activities including membership in student clubs shall be free from discrimination based on race, color, ancestry, nationality, ethnic group identification, age, religion, actual or potential parental, family, or marital status, or the exclusion of any person because of pregnancy or related conditions, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or expression, or genetic information; the perception of one or more of such characteristics; or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

The District does not discriminate in enrollment in or access to any of the activities and programs available. Admission to these programs is based on age appropriateness, class space, interest, aptitude, and prerequisite coursework where applicable. The lack of English skills shall not be a barrier to admission to or participation in the District's activities and programs. The Irvine Unified School District also does not discriminate in its hiring or employment practices.

FAQs

Who qualifies to enroll?

Students in grades Kindergarten through 8th grade who reside within Irvine Unified School District are eligible to enroll. For students grades K-6, a parent or designated instructor must provide daily instruction at home. Middle School students will receive instruction and grades from a credentialed teacher in math, English, science and social studies.

What are the program costs?

Irvine Home School is free. We provide student editions and access to teacher editions for all core curriculum, as well as consumable workbooks for many texts.

May we use our own curriculum?

Yes, parents may provide their own curriculum. Consult with your supervising teacher to ensure the curriculum corresponds to California Common Core Standards.

Is there a curriculum plan?

Yes, Master Assignments provide curriculum guidelines in Language Arts, Math, Social Studies, and Science for each grade level.

What are my responsibilities?

At the time of enrollment, parents will sign a Master Agreement that will include some of the following responsibilities:

1. To provide daily instruction (minimum of 4 hours a day) during normal school hours.
2. To submit Required Samples by the end of each Attendance Period. Required Samples must demonstrate academic progress and use of standard English conventions.
3. To attend Parent, Student, Teacher conferences (minimum, Goal Setting Conference and End of the Year Conference).
4. To return all non-consumable textbooks and materials at the end of the school year.
5. To maintain regular contact with your Irvine Home School supervising teacher.
