

Non-District Supported Software - IUSD Educational Technology

List is subject to change

Software Title	Description	Privacy Policy
Scholastic SRI and Reading Counts!	SRI (Scholastic Reading Inventory) is an assessment used to determine a student's reading level using the Lexile system. The student may then take quizzes on "Reading Counts!" for books in their reading level range.	https://www.scholastic.com/edtechprivacy.htm
Raz-Kids, Learning A-Z	RAZ-Kids is an interactive reading tool for our students to practice reading fluency and comprehension.	http://help.learninga-z.com/customer/portal/articles/1649236-privacy
Criterion	Criterion allows student writing to be self-corrected with computer guidance.	http://www.ets.org/legal/privacy
IXL	IXL is an interactive tool for students to practice math and grammar skills.	https://www.ixl.com/privacypolicy
BrainPOP	BrainPOP is a teaching tool contains videos that can be used to teach concepts.	https://jr.brainpop.com/
Vocabulary Spelling City	Vocabulary Spelling City is an interactive tool for our students to practice and take tests.	https://www.spellingcity.com/privacy-policy.html
PowToon	Website that allows students to create animated, informational videos.	http://www.powtoon.com/blog/privacy-policy/
Khan Academy	Khan Academy contains videos that can be used to teach concepts.	https://www.khanacademy.org/about/privacy-policy
Rosetta Stone	Rosetta Stone offers personalized language and reading programs to individualize learning.	http://resources.rosettastone.com/CDN/us/agreements/US_Privacy_Policy-102513.pdf
Class Dojo	Class Dojo is a management system that allows teachers to keep track of student behavior through a virtual points and awards system.	https://www.classdojo.com/privacy/
CODE.org	Code.org is an online platform that allows students to practice the basics of coding as part of required technology standards.	https://code.org/privacy
Sum Dog	Sumdog is an interactive tool for students to practice math skills.	http://www.sumdog.com/en/Privacy_Policy/